Early Achievers Program at Australian Catholic University (ACU):

This is an early entry program that takes into account factors other than just your ATAR for admission into courses. Factors include evidence of community service, leadership, and school participation etc. If you are accepted into the program, you will be guaranteed entry into the degree of your choice with a minimum ATAR, providing you meet prerequisites. The following are the minimum ATARs for the 2018 intake

- 70: Law and all dual Law degrees
- 70: Physiotherapy (subject to change)
- 65: Occupational Therapy, Speech Pathology, and Paramedicine.
- 58.5: all other degrees.

Applications are now open and close Monday 17 July, <http://bit.ly/2kPLY2t>

Direct Early Entry program at University of New England:

Applications are now open for this early entry program. Selection is based on the recommendation from the applicant's school, not their final ATAR. The program is free, fully online, and students can start their university application now. For a list of eligible courses and application information, go to <http://bit.ly/2aqFGGu>

Interested in journalism?

YMCA Victoria has established its own news room and press gallery for coverage of the Youth Parliament. This program offers young people the chance to gain a unique experience in conjunction with The Youth Parliament of Victoria and the Victorian Chambers of Government. While budding politicians take over Parliament House, emerging journalists from across Victoria will fill the press gallery to file stories for the website <http://bit.ly/2pwTYcJ> hit the airwaves, and write for publications across the state. Applications for the YMCA Press Gallery program close Sunday 14 May.

Interested in studying business? Did you know that some universities offer a year of industry experience as part of their undergraduate business degrees? The following are three examples:

Victoria University At least 40 weeks of paid industry experience through the Cooperative Education program (competitive entry), <http://bit.ly/2oWTNp7>

Swinburne University: a guaranteed year of paid industry experience through the Bachelor of Business (Professional) degree, <http://bit.ly/2pwwEM0>

RMIT: a guaranteed year of industry experience through the Applied program for Marketing, Economics and Finance, Information Systems, International Business, and Logistics and Supply Chain Management, <http://bit.ly/2aHKMqR>

Bachelor of Commerce at Victoria University:

The course prepares graduates for work in a variety of finance-related areas. The curriculum has a 'job-ready' focus and is aligned with the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Institute Candidate Body of Knowledge (CBOK). Students can undertake a professional major in either International Business or Applied Finance. There are 8 minors to choose from. The course gives students the opportunity to take part in:

- A study tour that blends formal study with experiential learning through overseas travel in Asia or Europe
- Industry placement
- Workplace-based projects with authentic case-based scenarios
- A mentoring program.

Applying for the Diploma of Nursing in 2018?

Students may be required to register for and pass the VETASSESS aptitude test as part of the selection process when applying for the Diploma at several TAFE Institutes. For the 2018 intake, students will need to consult directly with the TAFE they would like to apply to, to find out how to complete the test. The paper-based test can no longer be booked via the VETASSESS Australia website.
